

Vice President Appointed For Local Guaranty Bank

Jack E. Bryggare, 32, has been appointed vice president of Guaranty Bank in Torrance, P. Keith Hall, president, announced yesterday. Guaranty

Bank was founded in April, 1962, and is the only independent bank formed in the Torrance area in the past nine years.

A resident of Southern California for the past eight years, Bryggare was born in Evanston, Ill., and was educated at Evanston Community College and Northern Illinois State Teachers College.

Immediately after serving with the U. S. Marine Corps in Korea, he entered the banking industry in California. Bryggare brings more than eight years' experience with Southland banks to Guaranty Bank.

Bryggare, his wife, Peggy, and their two children reside in Harbor City.

Construction was recently started on permanent headquarters for the bank on Hawthorne Boulevard, just south of the Del Amo Shopping Center. The new 8,000-sq. ft. structure will represent an investment in land and buildings of more than $300,000.

Baptist Church Schedules 'Missions Emphasis Week'

"Missions Emphasis Week" will be held at the First Baptist Church of Torrance from Sunday through the 28th. Sunday morning at 9:15 and 10:45 the speaker will be the Rev. J. Hubbel, who is an American Baptist Missionary to the Hopi Indians in Second Mesa, Arizona. Sunday evening the 7:30 service will feature the Rev. Milton Wayne, missionary to Japan.

Throughout the week there will be services every evening at 7:30. Monday night will be Youth Night when the youth of the church will be hosts to servicemen from the Long Beach Servicemen's Center. The speaker will be Dr. Charles Farah of the Navigators.

FEATURED speakers for the remainder of the week will be Miss Lucy Wiatt, missionary to Burma; Mrs. Clara Dorn, who will be showing slides of her daughter, Clara, missionary to India; Rev. Dan Derr, a pilot with Missionary Aviation Fellowship, and Kenneth Watters, from Wycliffe Translators, who will bring a color film "Unsheathed."

On Sunday, Oct. 28, the closing day of the meetings, Dr. B. H. Pearson of World Gospel Crusades will be the speaker at the morning and evening services.

A FAMILY pot-luck dinner will precede the Wednesday evening service and special music is planned for each meeting. In the foyer of the church will be booths which will contain interesting displays and curios from various mission fields.

The public is invited to attend any or all of these special meetings.

Teaching Tests Set At College

Teacher wishing to fulfill the California teaching credential requirement of passing an examination on the Constitution of the United States may do so on Friday, Oct. 26, at 4 p.m. in Room 6 of the El Camino College Social Science Building, according to John H. de la Haye, assistant director of instruction.

"One of the following works will be helpful in preparing for the two-hour examination: 'Principles of American Government,' Saye, Pound and Al-lums; 'Faith of Our Fathers,' A. J. Cloud, or 'Understanding Your Constitution,' Corwin and Peltason," da la Haye said.

Junior College Association to Meet Saturday

Southern California's Junior College Assn. will have its annual fall meeting at Glendale College Saturday at 8:30 a.m., according to Dr. Jack Martin, business instructor at El Camino College and executive secretary of the association. "Saturday's meeting will consist of a general session and section meeting dealing with public relations and the junior college," Dr. Martin said.

Greek Beach Surprises

Summertime this year found Richard Parker, North High senior, sitting in a chair on a beach in Greece.

Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Parker, 17027 Ainsworth, discovered that Greek teenagers don't lie on beach towels when they go to the beach but they sit on chairs.

Sponsored by the American Field Service program, the student visited Thessalonike and Athens, among other cities, to gain knowledge of Greece.

Of the people, he states, "They are friendly, especially when they know you are from the United States."

Debate Squad To Practice In San Diego

El Camino College's speech squad opens its 1962-63 season when the forensics team travels to a practice tournament at San Diego State College Friday and Saturday.

Four debate teams and speakers in individual events will participate in the two-day forensics competition, according to coach Jerry Borden.

The EEC debate teams are Ramon Diaz-Darrell Brown, Mike Hohn-Joel Moore, Sharon Cross-Adolph Buelna and Earl Seaver-Edythe Abblett.

El Camino is a member of the Pacific Southwest Collegiate Forensics Assn. (PSCFA). Some 50 colleges and universities in California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah belong.
